

SCHEDULE

1. A complete copy of the 2005 Major League Baseball drug testing policy. This request includes, but is not limited to, a request for a document or documents reflecting:
 - a. details of the testing protocol;
 - b. how the testing is conducted;
 - c. the notice provided to the players prior to testing;
 - d. the procedure for random testing;
 - e. protocol for the offseason;
 - f. protocol for players residing outside of the United States during the offseason; and
 - g. the specific drugs tested for.
2. A complete copy of the 2004 Major League Baseball drug testing policy. This request includes, but is not limited to, a request for a document or documents reflecting the following:
 - a. details of the testing protocol;
 - b. the manner in which the testing was conducted, and;
 - c. the notice provided to the players prior to testing.
3. A complete copy of any document or documents reflecting the complete final positive test results of the 2004 Major League Baseball drug testing, with personal identifying information redacted. This request includes, but is not limited to, a request for a document or documents reflecting the following:
 - a. the specific drugs identified for each positive test result;
 - b. the number of positive tests for each drug identified; and
 - c. the percentage of players who tested positive for each drug.
4. A complete copy of the 2003 Major League Baseball drug testing policy. This request includes, but is not limited to, a request for a document or documents reflecting the following:
 - a. details of the testing protocol;
 - b. the manner in which the testing was conducted; and
 - c. the notice provided to the players prior to testing.
5. A complete copy of the final test results from the 2003 Major League Baseball drug testing, with personal identifying information redacted. This request includes, but is not limited to, a document or documents reflecting the following:
 - a. the specific drugs identified for each positive test result;
 - b. the number of positive tests for each drug identified; and
 - c. the percentage of players who tested positive for each drug.
6. A complete copy of all Major League Baseball drug testing policies in effect for steroids or addictive drugs from 1970 to 2002.

7. A complete copy of all Major League Baseball policies on the use of performance enhancing drugs from 1970 through 2002, including but not limited to, a copy of the 1990 Commissioner's Policy on Substance Abuse and the 1991 language that added steroids to the policy.
8. A copy of all proposals made by Major League Baseball to the players association in 1994 to conduct steroid testing.
9. A copy of the complete results of Major League Baseball "for cause" drug testing, with personal identifying information redacted, that was conducted from 1990 to the present, including but not limited to a document or documents reflecting the following:
 - a. the protocol and/or standards for "for cause" testing;
 - b. the number of "for cause" tests conducted during this timeframe;
 - c. the drugs that were the subject of "for cause" testing; and
 - d. the results of the "for cause" testing.
10. A copy of any studies commissioned by Major League Baseball regarding drug testing in any professional sports.
11. A copy of a document or documents reflecting drug-related disciplinary actions taken by Major League Baseball from 1990 to the present, including but not limited to, a document or documents reflecting the following:
 - a. the identity of the players suspended;
 - b. the length of the suspension; and
 - c. the reasons for the suspension.